Thanksgiving:

Day 7 : Great Souls at Prayer (47)

O Lord, incline your merciful ears to us, and illuminate the darkness of our hearts by the light of your visitation. Amen.

Almighty God, Lord of the storm and of the calm, the vexed sea and the quiet haven, of day and of night, of life and of death, grant unto us so to have our hearts stayed upon your faithfulness, your unchangingness and love, that whatsoever betide us, however black the cloud or dark the night, with quiet faith trusting in you, we may look upon you with untroubled eye, and walking meekly towards you, love one another, abide all storms and troubles of this mortal life, urging you that they may turn to the soul's true good. We ask it for your mercy's sake, shown in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray for ourselves so that we can experience God every day:

- 1. Read the Bible every day and meditate God's Word.*
- 2. Retreat to a quiet place to spend time with God, listen carefully to His still small voice, and wait for His instruction and correction with a humble and open heart.*
- 3. Live out God's Word in our daily life and experience the presence of God.*
- 4. Watch carefully in our daily life for God's guidance and then follow Him wholeheartedly to complete God's assignment so that we can experience God profoundly.*

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people — for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior. (1 Timothy 2:1-3)
